the call sign of the station called must be mentioned immediately after the call signal, e.g., 'The Eventh' or 'hawk', etc.; the station called answers with its call sign, e.g., 'the seventh is listening' or 'hawk is listening', etc. After the call the station making it must give its call sign, e.g., 'the eighth speaking' or 'raven speaking'.

- (d) If intermediate stations are used for a call, the intermediate station must be called and the first station's own call sign given with the request to call the final station requifed, e.g., 'Here Kuibyshev, call Kharkov'.
- (e) If stations are connected through a 'commutator', the telephone operator calls the TSTs (commutator) and, after it has answered, mentions the required number or a call sign.
- (f) The calling of official personages to the telephone is effected only through the 'table of call signs for official personages', which must be found at every telephone station, e.g., 'Ask ouk to come to the telephone, birch is asking for him'. When the person called is at the telephone, the operator informs the station called Sic!: 'I am handing the receiver to oak'.

'Per-Ok'Periscope

5. For the observation of trenches, shelters, covers, etc., a new periscope has been put into use, the so-called 'Per-Ok' (Periskop Okonny - window periscope).

Its specifications include:

Periscopicity (periskopnost) 1 - 1.5 (m.) (has two bends)

Magnification 6 x

Field of vision 8° 5

Illumination 25

The 'Per-Ok' turns around on its axis: horizontally 360° vortically ± 30°

This periscope is attached to a tripod. It has a rubber-eye-piece and various light filters. For protection from rain and sunlight and for camouflage the head is provided with a cover.
